

Map Question answers.

4) PG 270 1st century, greek & roman religion, Augustus ceasar

6) judism was the base of christianity PG 270
the sea was a safe place to travel and trade.
Mediterranean was called the "Roman Lake".

communicated their religion through the greek language developed in a stable calm environment

The roman empire was where christianity spread

Top ^{of social} Emperors - Men - Job of life -

~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~

- Freed slaves had different rights than citizens
- everything revolved around class
- could not move up in class
- religions were spread by travel, travel was for trade
- original roman religion was split into two parts
- christians were not afraid to face the consequence of death to spread their religion
- some people used the power of religion through out the roman empire.
- was not about following rules but by following rituals and worship
- the roman religion was not the only religion in the roman empire there was also judism witch and christianity
- every roman house worshiped spirits
- christianity was spread through apostles and modern communications of the roman empire.
- christian religion was preached to all people not only jews.
I accepted more than only jews
- relaxing the rules escalated the spread of christianity because it was easier to live by